

SolidCAL HC and VIS

Fluorescence control

SolidCAL is a series of solid secondary standards for monitoring the performance of fluorometers. These standards are used to determine the need for calibration of the enviroFlu-HC (HAP probe) and nanoFlu (chlorophyll-a, CDOM or phycocyanin measurements) sensors.

A SolidCal kit is available with a storage case for the standards and cleaning liquid for the optical measurement windows.